Good Will Bible Class Hear Reports and Have Informal Discussion on the Life and Character of Balaam.

A meeting of the members of the Good Will Bible class and invited male friends was held in the supper room of the Greenville Congregational church Friday evening.

Ringland being out of town the business of the meeting was presided over by Vice President, Hugh Phelan.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved and the reports of the secretary, treasurer and teacher were also approved.

Reports of several committees were heard and accepted.

After a light supper had been served there was an informal discussion on the Life and Character of Balaam.

The pastor of the church, Rev. C. H. Ricketts, presided over the discussion which was carried on enthusiastically by the members.

Mr. Grover opened the discussion by outlining the events leading up to the prophecies of Balaam.

Mr. Grover was followed by William Finlayson who read an excellently prepared paper on the subject.

Open discussion on the subject followed, led by the pastor. The discussion was much enjoyed and proved of much profit to the members of the class.

Pertinent remarks upon the work of the class in the church, Sunday school and in other lines were led by the superintendent, O. W. Carpenter.

Those rendered by A. Finlayson and Fred Powers and the meeting closed with good wishes to all.

QUARANTINE PASSES BOLISHED

Health Officers of Norwich, Montville and New London

Decide Smallpox Situation at Montville No Longer

Requires Them—Fumigation of Trolleys to be Continued—One More Case in Cornet Family.

The embargo which made quarantine passes a necessity to all persons going from Montville by trolley was lifted Sunday night upon the decision of Health Officers M. E. Fox, J. T. Black and N. B. Lewis of the towns of Montville, New London and Norwich, respectively, that the strict regulation was no longer essential to the stamping out of the smallpox, of which there have been twelve cases in the town of Montville. The daily fumigation of the trolley cars is still to be continued, however.

One new case has developed, making four persons now confined with the disease. These are well recovered and their way to recovery. The new case is that of Harold Cornet, brother of Miss Barbara Cornet, the school teacher at Montville, who was one of the first victims. Dr. Fox released Miss Cornet from quarantine Sunday. She will go back to her duties as teacher in the Montville school. Her home and the Cornet household are being disinfected and fumigated daily. School children and many mill employees were vaccinated in the town.

Danger of any general spread of the disease is believed to have passed. It is expected that it will be entirely stamped out within a short period.

At the school session of the board of health of Montville, December 8, probably at the state prison at Waterbury, although that has not been definitely decided. The law is optional, whether meetings of the board be held at the prison or at the state capitol. The thirty-day quarantine in which the Cornet family was held expired Saturday. Clerk Harry W. Reynolds received from the board of health a list of 42 petitions for pardons. Of this number 19 are new to come before the board of pardons on Friday of next week. Two come from New London county, one from Windham and one from Tolland.
